HM Courts & Tribunals Service

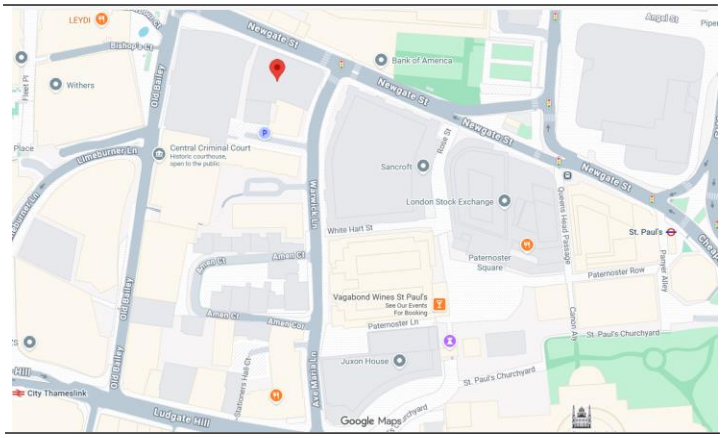
London Tribunals Centre

Address

7 Newgate Street

London

EC1A 7AZ



Travelling to the tribunal centre

Travelling by train and tube: City Thameslink National Rail Station is approximately a 10 minute walk from the tribunal centre. Blackfriars National Rail and Tube Station is approximately a 12 minute walk from the tribunal centre and is served by the Circle and District line. St Pauls Tube Station is approximately a 5 minute walk from the tribunal centre and is served by the Central line.

Travelling by bus: The closest bus stop to the tribunal centre is King Edward Street (Stop ST) (8, 25, 56, 133, 242). For further information please visit:

www.transportdirect.info
www.tfl.gov.uk/tfl/gettingaround/maps/buses

By Road: The tribunal centre sits on corner of Newgate Street and Warwick Lane.

Parking: There is only accessible parking available upon prior arrangement with the tribunal centre.

Bike: There are bike racks available for use in the basement of the tribunal centre.
Access to the basement can be gained from Warwick Lane.
The bike racks are located at the bottom of the ramp leading into the basement.
You can use your secure access card to open the gate leading to the basement ramp.