Googlegroup rules

Do:

1. Be respectful of other ASAN members
2. Post only short messages which will be relevant to the whole group
3. Ask questions of other members
4. Post messages relevant to ASAN's aim (see ASAN's Purpose and Principles)
5. Be clear about the cost in providing a legal service if responding to posts on ASAN seeking help

Do not:

6. Share the contents of an email with anyone who is not a member of ASAN without the permission of the author
7. Put any information in your email that identifies a client
8. Post messages intended for individuals to the whole group
9. Post messages that break the law or condone or encourage unlawful activity
10. Promote products or services other than those which benefit destitute asylum seekers, refused asylum seekers or irregular migrants
11. If seeking opinions from the group do not take silence as consent
12. Use language likely to offend
13. Share contact details of ASAN members without their consent unless they are publicly available
14. Share the contents of ASAN posts with journalists
15. Share members contact details with journalists, even if they are publicly available
16. Refer clients to legal firms following responses on ASAN without checking the firm's website for information on whether the service is covered by legal aid, or incurs a cost
